Cultural Attaché Lamu Outreach – Visit Lamu Bhujra Secondary School

The Cultural Attaché Raymond Stephens visited Lamu Bhujra Secondary School – one of the largest boy's secondary school in Lamu. He addressed 500 students on US Government Cultural and Education programs in Kenya. Students engaged CAO for over an hour asking questions on scholarships, US elections, education system in the U.S and American youth. He later donated educational materials to the school. The mixed set of books, charts and journals will benefit students and 22 teachers at the school.

CAO Raymond Stephens also had an opportunity to meet a student and a teacher nominees of US Government sponsored exchange program in the US. The student was selected out of over 200 applicants countrywide. The female teacher interviewed some weeks ago emerged among the best teachers in the Coastal region. She is excited and looks forward to the visit. The activity helped mission to build bridges with new groups as well as achieve key goals of improving education and youth engagement
